when in need of a Dentist. Mr. Amos Boone, aged 29, and Miss Lillie Johnson, aged 19, both of Adams county, O., were married at the County Clerk's office Saturday by His Honor Judge Charles D. Newell. The bride's parents gave their consent to the marriage for the very logical reasons that they wouldn't have to keep her, and it didn't make no difference nohow! didn't make no difference nohow! James Newell and Sum Price had a "script" Saunday afternoon in a Market street said in thick hoth parties were slightly cut or scratched. Warrants for both charged "cutting with intent to kill;" but on hearing before Squire Grant this charge was dismissed. The evidence tended to exonerate Mr. Newell and to put the, blame on Mr. Price; so the latter was mined $5 and costed $10.85 for breach of the peace, while the case of the former was distantssed.
